

September 10, 2017 – 23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

PENITENTIAL ACT

Lord Jesus, you showed the disciples how to reconcile with one another: Lord, have mercy.
Christ Jesus, you taught them about love and respect: Christ, have mercy.
Lord Jesus, you call us to heal our divisions in the same way: Lord, have mercy.

PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL

Presider: My friends, let us pray for all who are in need of reconciliation with one another.

Lector: For the whole church: That it may be a model of true healing and reconciliation ... we pray,

- For the resolution of conflicts between and among the world's nations; and for those who mediate international conflicts ... we pray,
- For those situations in which reconciliation seems impossible, or wherever conflict leads to hatred, violence or war ... we pray,
- For those whose lives are altered because of conflict, especially among children and families ... we pray,
- For those unwilling to reconcile with others, and for those who do not know how...we pray,
- For those who glorify conflict or use it to promote themselves ... we pray,
- For any conflicts that need to be resolved in this community ... we pray,
- For those effected by natural disasters, for those in the path of Hurricane Irma...we pray,
- For all among us who are suffering, especially the poor, the sick and the dying; and for those who have died ... (including) ... we pray

Saturday/Sábado, September 9, 2017

5:00 pm † John G. Martinez

Sunday/Domingo, September 10, 2017

8:30 am Luc Huynh (pronounced Win)

10:30 am † Andres E. Loredó

12:30 pm For the People [Skip intention...Do not read including

Presider God of healing, we come as people often needing to make peace with one another. Help us to remember that peace is possible when hearts are open to love. Show us how to be peacemakers in a world in need of healing. We ask this in the name of Jesus, the great healer. Amen.