

Thirty Third Sunday in Ordinary Time - 11/19/2017

Penitential Act:

Lord Jesus, you taught your disciples the importance of being prepared: Lord, have mercy.
Christ Jesus, you showed them that preparedness requires responsibility: Christ, have mercy.
Lord Jesus, you tell us how to be wise and faithful servants: Lord, have mercy.

Intercessions

Presider Let us pray, my friends, for the will to be the people we are called to be.

Lector

For the whole church, that we may respond to the challenge given to us by Christ ... we pray,

For leaders who do not use their gifts for the prosperous future of the whole human community ... we pray,

For those who do not appreciate or trust the gifts they have been given ... we pray,

For counselors and therapists, teachers and coaches, parents and mentors who work to support those who live in fear ... we pray,

For programs and policies that create new skills and strengths to replace those no longer needed ... we pray.

For grateful hearts as we celebrate Thanksgiving this week, and for those who feel they have little to be thankful for ... we pray,

For all in this community who need help or encouragement, especially the sick or lonely, the discouraged or depressed ... we pray,

For all who have died ... (including) ... and for those who grieve for them ... we pray,

Presider

Generous God, you are the giver of all that we have. Give us the vision, courage and strength to use our gifts to benefit others. In this darkening time of the year, we pray that we may be people of light. We humbly ask this in Jesus' name. Amen.
