

July 2, 2017 – 13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

PENITENTIAL ACT

Lord Jesus, you called the apostles to take up your cross: Lord, have mercy.

Christ Jesus, you promised rewards to those who lived as you lived: Christ, have mercy.

Lord Jesus, you offer us the same invitation: Lord, have mercy.

PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL

Presider My friends, let us pray that all invited by Christ to follow him may hear and respond to his call.

Minister For the whole church especially peacemakers at a time when peace is greatly needed throughout the world ... we pray,

- For those who are luke-warm about living out their baptism or afraid to live deeply Christian lives ... we pray,
- For those who are called to support members of other faith traditions under assault, especially Judaism and Islam ... we pray,
- For organizations, groups and individuals who live out the Gospel by serving the needs of, or, giving their lives for others ... we pray,
- For the United States as it celebrates Independence Day — that the citizens of this divided nation may uphold our most profound human values ... we pray,
- For those we are called to serve in this community, especially the sick, the dying (including) and all who are suffering in any way, ... we pray,

Presider God who calls and accompanies us, we look to you as we seek to live as Jesus lived. Grant us courage when we are afraid, confidence when we are doubtful, strength when we are weary, and wisdom when we are confused. We ask this in Jesus' name. Amen.
